Awards and Distinctions

Association for Information Systems (AIS) – the premier global professional association for individuals and organizations who lead the research, teaching, practice, and study of IS worldwide.

AIS President (September 2023-August 2024). Elected in March 2022 to serve on AIS Council from September 2022 to August 2025 (as President Elect for the first year, President for the second year and Past President for the third year), following a nomination as candidate by the AIS Nominating Committee.

Advisory Board member (September 2022-2023), ADVANCE NSF Grant Number: 017130 (WPI), 2017130 (W&M), ImPACT IT: Increasing the Participation and AdvanCement of Women in IT (<https://impactit.pages.wm.edu/>). The grant’s Core Team works with the Association for Information Systems (AIS) to investigate whether organizational barriers that inhibit equity may exist in policies, processes, practices, and the organizational culture and climate. The ImpACT IT project will address the lack of gender equity within Information Systems (IS) academia.

Service Awards

1. Association for Information Systems (AIS) Distinguished Member Cum Laude – recognizes members who have made a significant impact on the association.
2. 2020 AIS Technology Challenge Award. This award is given to the most significant contributions to the continued development of a community of IS Scholars on AISNet (including AISWorld) in the preceding year. The AIS community is appreciative of the resource contributions of the individuals, their academic units, and their universities, without whose support there would be no global community of IS scholars. “This award recognizes those individuals who have made extraordinary contributions and the use of technology to overcome challenges and continuing to build a community of IS scholars across the Association. Your efforts in leading the conversion of ECIS 2020 to an online conference and formation of the AIS Virtual Conference Series (VCS) in response to the Covid-19 Pandemic were remarkable. These contributions not only benefited the ECIS 2020 authors, these efforts resulted in numerous advancements and contributions in the long-term technological vision of the Association moving forward. On behalf of all members in the Association, we Thank-you for your efforts and contributions” (Brian Fitzgerald, AIS President, December 4th 2020). “Your leadership, efforts and vision set the standard of the platforms and technical solutions used for so many virtual events during this year. “ (Matthew Nelson, AIS Executive Director, December 4th 2020). The award was announced at the (virtual) International Conference of Information Systems (ICIS 2020) on December 16th 2020.
3. 2016 Sandra Slaughter Service Award of the Association for Information Systems (AIS). The award was established in 2014 and recognizes longstanding members who have provided leadership and service within the AIS. The award ceremony took place at the International Conference of Information Systems (ICIS 2016) in Dublin in December 2016.
4. ‘Golden Medal for Lifetime Achievement’ by the Executive Committee of the Information and Communication Technologies in Organizations and Society Conference. The award ceremony took place at the ICTO 2017 International Conference in Paris in March 2017.
5. Featured in the AIS Volunteer Spotlight – in recognition of service to the IS community (<http://home.aisnet.org/associations/7499/files/March%202009%20Vol%20Spotlight.pdf>), March 2009.

- Preparation of distance learning material for the Brunel MBA on the Network Organisations & Electronic Commerce (CS5084A) module (Brunel University, 1998-99, 1999-2000);
Module leader in 1999-2000

Shared teaching responsibilities and project supervision

- Supervision of students on placement, postgraduate and undergraduate dissertations (Brunel University and AUEB)
- MSc Dissertations (CS5007S) – Introductory lectures, Brunel University 1999-2000
- Final Year Projects (CS3072/4/5B) – Part of the lecture programme for undergraduate students, Brunel University 1998-99
- Part of the lecture programme in the courses Strategic Planning for Information Systems and Electronic Commerce (Brunel University 1997-98, 1998-99, 1999-2000) on topics including: stakeholder analysis, social implications of computing, interorganizational systems

Ph.D supervision and examination

Successful PhD completions

1. Antonios Roussos on ‘An investigation of the presence of Aristotelean values in the Ethical Instructor-Leader and of the perceived impact on students’ psychological wellbeing’ – Successful completion March 2024, Athens University of Economics and Business. Dr Roussos is Director in a Senior High School in Kifisia, Attica, Greece. Dr Roussos dissertation was initially supervised and subsequently co-supervised by Professor Dimitris Bourantas.
2. Ariana Polyviou on ‘A multi-perspective analysis of cloud adoption decisions: Examining cloud adoption decision making process and adoption factors’ – Successful Completion July 2016, Athens University of Economics and Business. Dr Polyviou is Lecturer at the Technical University of Cyprus, former Assistant Professor at the University of Nicosia, Cyprus and former Post-Doctoral Fellow at the University of Cyprus.
3. Ioannis Krasnikolakis on ‘3D Online Internet Retailing: Experimental Investigation of Graphical User Interface - Store Atmosphere Effects on Consumer Buying Behavior’. Co-supervised with Dr Vrechopoulos – Successful Completion February 2013, Athens University of Economics and Business. Dr Krasnikolakis is Research Fellow at Oxford University and has served as Lecturer at the University of Southampton, UK, and Senior Lecturer at the University of Kent.
4. Elpida Prasopoulou on ‘The interplay of ICT innovation with state administrative tradition: evidence from the Greek Taxation Information System (TAXIS)’ – Successful Completion October 2009, Athens University of Economics and Business. Dr. Prasopoulou has worked as A.C. Laskaridis Post-Doctoral Fellow at the Hellenic Observatory/ European Institute at the London School of Economics and is currently Operations Manager at the Centre for Postdigital Cultures at the University of Coventry, UK.
5. Korina Diamanti on ‘Network Ties, Knowledge and Best Practice Transfer in Traditional and Virtual Benchmarking’ – Successful Completion October 2009, Athens University of Economics and Business. Dr. Diamanti is a manager in the Chamber of Commerce of the Western Prefecture of Greece.
6. Miltiadis D. Lytras on ‘An ontological approach to the definition of semantics for learning objects: the conversion of knowledge management and pedagogy in e-learning’ – Successful Completion May 2004, Athens University of Economics and Business. Dr. Lytras has served

- as Adjoint Lecturer at the University of Patras and is a Research Faculty member of the American College of Greece.
7. Anastasia Papazafeiropoulou on ‘A stakeholder approach to electronic commerce diffusion’ (funded by EPSRC grant GR/N03242) – successful completion September 2002, Brunel University. Dr Papazafeiropoulou is a Senior Lecturer at Brunel University.
 8. Inas Ezz on ‘Management support systems integration’ – successful completion July 2001, Brunel University. Dr. Ezz is a lecturer at Sadat Academy for Management Sciences, Cairo, Egypt and Visiting Research Fellow at Brunel University.
- Member of the Advisory Committee of the following successful completions at AUEB: E. Chaniotaki (2020), E. Zamani (2014), A. Nikas (2007), A. Pateli (2006) and P. Kourouthanassis (2006). Dr Chaniotaki works in the Ministry of the Interior, Greece; Dr Zamani is Senior Lecturer at Sheffield University (UK); Dr Nikas is Faculty Member of the University of Liverpool Online Programmes; Dr Pateli and Dr Kourouthanassis are Professors at Ionian University (Greece).

PhD supervision (current)

Principal supervisor of the following Ph.D. student:

- A. Massias – Topic: Stakeholder analysis for Internet-of-Things (IoT)-driven supply chain operations
- A. Karamitrou – Topic: An exploratory study of the impact of working shifts to the metabolic and behavioral changes of nursing/medical staff, which affect their performance
- N. Vassilakis – Topic: Information systems in the public sector

Member of the supervisory committee for the following Ph.D. students:

- E. Antonopoulos
N. Feloutzis
P. Katiaj
